'WHERE THE NIGHTS ARE GAY'

Plumbers' Summer Festival at Barber-Surgeons' Hall - Tuesday 18th July 2017

The last formal Company event of our present Master's year will be our Summer Festival on 18th July at Barber-Surgeons' Hall, which takes the place of the Autumn Festival held in previous years in late September.

Alderman Charles Bowman will join us with his wife Samantha as our principal guest and speaker. The Court of Aldermen has confirmed that if Charles is one of the Aldermen endorsed by the Livery at Common Hall at the end of September, he will be elected as Lord Mayor for the year commencing November 2017.

In the heart of the City we shall be transported to the land of turquoise seas and endless summer. The Master has planned a gay and convivial evening with a bit of Caribbean style. A trio from the RASPO Steel Orchestra will entertain at our reception in the terrace and herb garden and the whole group will play during and after dinner in the splendid Barber-Surgeons' Hall. Our menu may also have a hint of Caribbean flavour.

Brian and Anne look forward to a very happy evening in the company of friends, hopefully blessed by a little Caribbean sunshine – if not from the mountain tops, then at least streaming through the nearby City landmarks. This is an opportunity to experience a Hall we have not visited for some time. We expect to fill it in Lightning Bolt time! Barber-Surgeons' Hall seats no more than 120, so if you want to welcome the height of British summer in true holiday style, you will have to get your application in quickly!
