COURT LUNCH – Wednesday 10th April 2019

The Master and Wardens and Court of Assistants invite you to join them for lunch in the magnificent surroundings of the Tallow Chandlers' Hall on Dowgate Hill (alongside Cannon Street Station) on Wednesday 10th April 2019 at 1245hr for 1300hr. Our guest speaker will be Colonel Simon Duckworth OBE DL, who will describe one of the unknown jewels of the City of London, Her Majesty's Commission of Lieutenancy, with a long history and modern relevance in its work with reservists and cadets.

At the meeting of the Court, we will be making Mr Jools Holland OBE DL an Honorary Liveryman; he will be joining us for lunch with his wife, Christabel. It will also be the occasion to present Past Master John Rae with a certificate in recognition of 45 years' service to the Court. We will also be welcoming up to eight new Liverymen and their partners.

The cost of the three-course lunch with wine is £93 per head. Dress is lounge suit or equivalent with Livery Badges.
