

Records of the Worshipful Company of Plumbers

Records of the Worshipful Company of Plumbers, 1365-1961. Can be found Guildhall Library. The records of the Company include registers of freedom admissions from 1694; apprentice bindings from 1571; charters; Court minute books; quarterage books; financial accounts; letter books and deeds and other papers relating to properties.

For details see www.aim25.ac.uk Enter Plumbers into the search box.

A manuscript copy of the Charter is held in London University: University College London (VCL) Bequeathed to the Library at University College London by Captain Henry Ward in 1867

Special Collections see www.aim25.ac.uk

Typescript copies of the Charter and Ordinances of 1611 are on the Company web site About Us:Our History:1611 www.plumberscompany.org.uk/about/our-history/