http://www.plumberscompany.org.uk/assets/file/WCP_Membership_Form_2017b_blank.pdf

If you get a mental block, please do not hesitate to talk to your proposer who will be very pleased to help you complete the form. The questions are not designed to trip you up.

Name	Insert your name as it appears on your birth certificate
Titles, honours or decorations	You should indicated here if you have received any public or military award or decoration e.g. MBE, OBE, Gallantry awards etc. or if you are entitled to be called "Professor , Doctor, or "Sir" etc.
Qualifications	Insert any degrees or professional qualification designatory letters that you are entitled to use. The Company welcomes members of many disciplines and included amongst its number counts lawyers, actuaries, accountants, architects, members of every branch of the armed service as well of course as those working in the plumbing, engineering and allied disciplines.
Residential Address	This should be the address where you live, you have the option to tick the adjacent box to indicate if you would wish to have correspondence sent elsewhere e.g. to your place of business.
Business address	Insert your usual business address and tick the adjacent box only if you would prefer correspondence to be sent to your business address.
Contact telephone and email address	It is important that we are able to contact you therefore, please provide telephone numbers and email addresses that you use and check most regularly. You may leave spaces between the provider/telephone area code and number. Please do not forget to enter the country code to dial from the UK if living overseas.
Date of Birth	Please enter in figures using the English format day/month/year
Country of Birth	Please state
Are you a freeman of the City of London	Whilst there are exceptions, the majority of applicants going through the process of joining the Livery Company will answer No to this question and will be required to become a Freeman by redemption i.e. payment of a very small fee. The Clerk and your Proposer will guide you through this simple process, which is part of the admission procedure.
Are you a Member of another Livery Company	Nothing prohibits membership of more than one Livery Company so please just answer honestly and give the name of any other Company you have joined.
Brief particulars of education	Usual to state simply your secondary school and any College, University or other seat of higher learning that you may have attended. It is usual to state the main course of study e.g. Degree in Studied at ... Exact details of grades or details of short training courses are not required.

Brief particulars of career	A full CV is not required just a synopsis of what you have been doing in broad terms and including details of any military service.
Present profession or occupation	A brief description only is required. It is a good idea to state your job title and briefly what is entailed. A full job description is not required.
Public or other Appointments	If you are a Chairman or non-executive director of a Public body please enter this here. A broad definition of what constitutes a public bodies can be found on the government website https://publicappointments.cabinetoffice.gov.uk/fag/ but would include service on a health trust, ACAS, the Charity Commission etc.
Reasons for wishing to be elected to the Company?	The answer need not be lengthy, and example is given but it could be anything from being a family tradition to having been introduced by a friend and having enjoyed an event. There is no right or wrong answer this is just an opportunity to find out a little about you and what is motivating you to want to join.
Any other interests or hobbies?	The Livery attracts a very broad church of interests, please feel free to tell us what you enjoy doing. There are no right or wrong answers; we just want to learn more about you to help us to form a picture about you. Try to bring out anything that involves taking on responsibility too, this could be anything football coaching to playing the organ at your local church.
Membership category applied for?	The different types of membership and the differing benefits are outlined in the pack provided and on the Company website. We hope that the majority of UK based members will apply to become Liverymen but in the event that you are not yet able to take on this commitment or you are living overseas it is possible to apply to become a Freeman or International member.
Signatures	When you have completed the form you should sign it and then get your Proposer to sign. If you or your Proposer does not know another member of the Company who can second your Proposal, let your Proposer know and you will be put in touch with a member of the Membership committee, who will contact you and can arrange to act as a Secunder following a discussion with you.

What happens next?

Please follow the instructions on the application form for submission of your application form and the non-refundable admission fee. The process and time-scale for joining is described in your Membership pack and on-line.
